This is absolutely brilliant, breathtaking; there are echoes of everyone from Guston to the performances of Cage and others @ 9 evenings to happenings; I see echoes of David Bohm, who's from my home town etc. etc.
But the combination of everything, the performance aspect, occasioned by stop-motion/real-time/etc. is phenomenal. I'm not on Mastodon, at least not now, and hope you keep posting this work and others - would love to know more about your process, etc. Thank you greatly, wonderful -

Best, Alan -
